§ 81-7. Liability for conduct of another; complicity. [Added 2-24-1999 by Ord. No. 99-023]*

 Editor's Note: This ordinance also repealed former § 81-7, Depositing handbills on vacant premises.

A. A person shall be liable for a violation under this article if:

(1) Such person's own conduct or the conduct of another person for whom he or she is legally accountable causes the violation.

(2) He or she is an accomplice of another person whose acts cause a violation of this article.

(3) He or she engages in a conspiracy to commit a violation of this article.

B. For the purpose of this section, the terms "legally accountable," "accomplice" and "conspiracy" shall be defined in accordance with N.J.S.A. 2C:2-6. To the extent relevant, all of the conditions of liability for the conduct of another in N.J.S.A. 2C:2-6 shall apply to any prosecution under this article.*

 Editor's Note: N.J.S.A. 2C:2-6 defines criminal liability for the conduct of another person.

ARTICLE I Handbills and Signs [Adopted 5-4-1971 as Ch. 3, Art. II, of the 1971 Jersey City Code, as readopted 9-19-1978 by Ord. No. S-128; amended in its entirety 10-9-1996 by Ord. No. 96-095]

§ 81-11. Removal of signs and handbills, responsibility.

Any handbill or sign found posted or otherwise affixed upon any public, or utility property contrary to the provisions of this section may be removed by any company, utility, organization or individual owning or responsible for maintaining that property or the Department of Public Works. When the property is not owned by the City of Jersey City, the City shall obtain written permission before removal of any sign or handbill.

§ 81-12. Removal of signs and handbills; costs of removal. [Amended 2-24-1999 by Ord. No. 99-023]

A. The Director of Public Works or an authorized agent may notify the individual or organization of the location of all unauthorized sign(s) and handbill(s) and require their removal. If the individual or organization, after notification, fails to remove the unauthorized signs and handbill within 10 days after receipt of such notice, the Director may authorize the removal and charge the cost of removal to the individual or organization.

B. The individual or organization responsible for the unauthorized sign(s) and handbill(s) shall not be responsible for the cost of removal if notice is not given within the specified time.

C. The Director of Public Works shall determine the reasonable costs to the City of Jersey City incurred in removing handbills and signs pursuant to this section. Such costs shall include but are not limited to direct labor, material and equipment costs, as well as departmental and general city overhead costs attributable to removal of signs.

D. Notice under this section may be by registered or ordinary mail if an address is indicated on the sign or by phone if a telephone number is indicated or by any means reasonably intended to give notice to the unauthorized sign.

§ 81-13. Presumptions applicable in action seeking costs of removal. [Amended 2-24-1999 by Ord. No. 99-023]

A. For purposes of any civil action by the Director of Public Works under §§ 81-11 and 81-12 seeking to recover the costs of removal, there shall be a presumption that:

(1) The real estate agent, broker, brokerage firm or other person whose name or telephone number appears on the handbill or sign is the person responsible for posting a handbill or sign advertising property for sale, lease or rent;

(2) The organization whose name appears on a sign as the sponsor of a candidate seeking office is the organization responsible for posting a handbill or sign promoting the candidate for public office;

(3) The owner, or lessee if the property is leased, of property used for a yard or garage sale is the person responsible for posting a handbill or sign advertising a yard or garage sale;

(4) The owner, or lessee if the property is leased, of property used for a commercial activity or event is the person responsible for posting a handbill or sign advertising the subject commercial activity or event;

(5) The person whose name, telephone number or address appears as the sponsor for a sporting event, concert, theatrical performance or similar activity or event is the person responsible for posting a handbill or sign advertising the subject activity or event;

(6) The person whose name, telephone number or address appears as the person to contact on any handbill or sign posted is the person responsible for having posted the same; and

(7) The company's name appearing on a circular, flyer or advertisement promoting products or services is the responsible party for distribution of such material.

B. For purposes of this section, the person presumed to be responsible for posting a handbill or sign on public or utility property may rebut such presumption by declaring under penalty of perjury or swearing under oath that the person did not cause, authorize, allow or permit the posting of the handbill or sign on public or utility property.
